

SOCIAL EVENTS

MRS. ZUBER HOSTESS 500 CLUB.

Mrs. Edith Zuber, No. 4 Dorothea flats, Davenport, entertained the 500 club, of which she is a member and which is composed largely of Rock Island ladies, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Ed Davis, Mrs. Zuber, Mrs. Harry Rogers and Mrs. Otto were prize winners in the games. A lunch was served after the games and the club was invited to meet in two weeks with Mrs. Lucy Morris, 2015 Fifth avenue, Rock Island.

MR. ENRIKIN'S PROGRAM.

Knowles Enrikin of Chicago's "Little Theatre" will read before the Moline Woman's club at the April meeting Saturday at the First Baptist church, Sixth avenue and Seventeenth street, Moline. He has announced the following program:

Poems from "Spoon River Anthology"—Edgar Lee Masters.
"Union Square"—Walter Bynner.
(a) "Innis Free"; (b) "When You Are Old"—William Butler Yeats.
(a) "Barrel Organ"; (b) Songs from "Tales of Mervin Inn"—Alfred Noyes.
"Sea Fever"—John Masefield.
Ballads—Rudyard Kipling.
Poems from "North of Boston"—Robert Frost.

(a) "The Congo"; (b) "General William Booth Enters Heaven"; (c) "The Calliope Vell"—Vachel Lindsay.
The music of the afternoon will be in charge of Mrs. J. J. Dorgan, chairman of the music department.

Nomination of officers for the ensuing year will take place at the business session.

DAVENPORT MAN WEDS BARON.

A wedding which brings a delightful whiff of romance from across the seas, very pleasant to contemplate in this time of stress and anxiety, and which is of unusual interest to Iowa people and to Davenport friends especially, is that of Casper Ludwig Dreier, vice consul general to Dresden, Germany, who was married Feb. 18 at the country residence of the bride near Dresden, to Baroness Katherine von Rosenburg.

Mr. Dreier's bride is an American girl who before her marriage to the German count was Miss Washburn of Boston, Mass. She has two small children, and has divided her time since her husband's death between her country residence near Dresden and her residence in that city.

Mr. Dreier's last visit to his mother, Mrs. Marie Kant Dreier of the Pasadena flats, Davenport, was last fall. He calls Davenport home, although his active life has left him little time to spend with his family.

Mr. Dreier has been connected with the United States consular service for the past 10 years. He left the Kansas City office of the Santa Fe road to go to the Panama canal zone at the time the canal was building, later going to South America and then to Singapore, India, in the service, finally being appointed vice consul general to Dresden.

Mr. Dreier grew to manhood in Muscatine and received the greater part of his education there.

He is a brother of H. Edward Dreier, the well known newspaper man of the tri-cities, who recently accepted the position of advertising manager of the "Oklahoman" in Oklahoma City.

W. R. C. COFFEE PARTY.

The monthly coffee party of the Woman's Relief corps No. 66 was held at Memorial hall in the court house yesterday afternoon with a large attendance of members and friends who were entertained with a fine program. Wallace Bowley entertained with piano numbers. Ruth Bowley gave sev-

There's Nothing as Good for Corns as G-E-T-S-I-T

Refuse All and Any Imitations.

Don't let anyone tell you there is anything else as good for corns as "G-E-T-S-I-T". Some may try to shove an imitation on to you, with a name that sounds like "G-E-T-S-I-T" and meant to deceive you. Reliable druggists won't do it.

"Why, O Why, Did I Do It? 'G-E-T-S-I-T' for Me After This—If I Live!"

"Glad to meet you" says the razor to the corn. "I'll bleed for you" says the corn to the razor. Razors and corns love each other. Corns love to be cut, picked, gouged, saved, plastered and jerked out—they grow faster. Mr. and Mrs. Went-and-Out. It realize it now—they use "G-E-T-S-I-T". Instead—it's the wonderful, simple corn-cure that never fails. Stomach pain. You apply it in 30 seconds it dries at once, the corn is doomed. Nothing to stick to the stocking or press on the corn. It means good-night to plasters, salves, diggers, razors and toe-bundling. You can wear summer shoes. Your corns will come right off, "clean as a whistle." Never inflames healthy flesh. It's the world's biggest selling corn cure. If you don't get "G-E-T-S-I-T" when you ask for it, it's your own fault and your own loss. "G-E-T-S-I-T" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. "Sold in Rock Island and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by A. J. Riess."

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) Who furnishes the bride and bridesmaid flowers?

(2) Do the bride's parents pay for the bride's wedding outfit?

(3) Please give me a menu for a wedding supper, not too expensive.

(4) When a person marries in winter, what are nice decorations for the rooms?

(5) What are nice decorations for summer?

(6) At the wedding would it be all right to have relatives serve the supper, or should friends do it?

(7) How many would it take to serve at a wedding of 75?

(8) What are the best days of the week to marry on? What day do most people take?

(9) Would it be all right to have my uncle's sister play the wedding march?

(10) Does it make any difference if she is married?

(11) Should I invite her father and mother and brother?

(12) Is there anything wrong in kissing the man you are going to marry?

(13) Whom should I have for bridesmaid, my cousin or the groom's cousin?

(14) How should I fix a corner for the ceremony?

(15) When do they come down stairs and how do they do it?

(16) Who sits at the bride's table?

(17) Who goes to see the people about serving?

(18) When do you send the invitations to the wedding?

(19) Who goes to see about having the invitations printed?

PEGGY C.

(1) The groom.

(2) Certainly.

(3) Chicken patties, creamed peas, hot rolls and coffee; then after the plates have been removed, ice cream and cake. Chicken salad might be substituted for the patties and peas.

(4) Rooms are decorated with palms and hothouse flowers if they are decorated at all in winter.

(5) Hothouse or garden flowers and palms. Ferns might be used instead of palms to save the expense of renting palms from the florist.

(6) It would be all right to have whichever you choose, relatives or friends, serve the supper.

(7) I should think six girls would be a good number.

(8) People marry on all week days; one day is as good as another.

(9) Yes.

(10) No.

(11) It is not at all necessary to invite them.

(12) No.

(13) Have your cousin or your very dearest friend.

(14) Fix a bank of palms and at the left put a pedestal with flowers. At a formal wedding two pedestals are used.

(15) When it is time for the wedding the wedding march starts to play and the bride, on the arm of her father, comes downstairs; she is followed by the bridesmaid, who walks alone. The groom, the minister and the best man wait at the altar.

(16) The bride, groom, minister, bridesmaid and best man always sit at the bridal table. A few of the bride's and groom's dearest friends sit at the table also. No one at the bridal table except the bride and groom and possibly the minister should be married.

(17) The bride herself usually asks friends who would not be invited to the wedding if they would like to serve.

(18) The invitations should be sent out two weeks before the wedding.

(19) The bride's mother usually.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am 18 years old and a young man has asked me to go to the theatre with him. I have never been asked to go with a young man before. Do you think it would be all right to accept this invitation?

CLARA.

Yes.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Please tell me how to get rid of moles.

BLUE EYES.

Have them removed with the electric needle. It is the only safe way.

enthusiasm or otherwise according to the results. All the ladies attending the convention had taken care to vote before leaving their homes.

MRS. MOORE SPEAKER AT WOMAN'S CLUB.

Mrs. Philip North Moore will be the speaker at the April meeting of the Rock Island Woman's club, Saturday, April 15, her subject to be "Feminism From a Scientific Standpoint." This promises to be one of the best numbers on the program this season. New members who desire to belong to the club may join in April or May for the old rate of $1 which saves them the initiation fee and gives them the privilege of voting for the new officers of the club at the May meeting and the opportunity to hear Mrs. Moore. Application may be made to the club officers at any time before the next meeting.

ELITE KENSINGTON CLUB.

Mrs. Albert Glass, 2512 Sixth avenue, entertained delightfully yesterday afternoon members of the Elite Kensington Embroidery club at the April meeting. Music and general sociability prevailed and the hostess served a fine three course lunch, trimming her serving table with lovely early spring flowers. Mrs. Strand, Fourteenth-and-a-half street and Sixteenth avenue, will entertain at the next meeting May 3.

SOCIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The Ladies' Aid society of the United Presbyterian church will hold a sale of fancy articles, aprons, etc., and coffee tomorrow afternoon in the church parlors. The public is invited to the affair.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist church will meet for a business session tomorrow afternoon in the church and in the evening will conduct a parcel post sale at which time many useful articles will be offered for sale. Refreshments will be served and the public is welcome.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Baptist church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in the home of Mrs. S. J. Woodin, 922 First avenue. Mrs. W. R. Monigold will be the leader and the topic is "Opportunities in China."

The Brotherhood of American Yeomen No. 2291 will hold a box social tomorrow evening in Beselin's hall. Bluer's orchestra will furnish music for dancing and the affair is for the public.

WEDNESDAY SOCIAL CLUB.

Mrs. William Neal acted as hostess yesterday in her home, 1910 Thirtieth avenue, to members of the Wednesday Social club. Needle work was the pastime and the ladies were served with an appetizing lunch. In two weeks Mrs. H. E. Arndt on Fifteenth street will be the hostess.

SURPRISED ON BIRTHDAY.

Twenty-four friends surprised Mrs. E. Rinehart at her home, 1504 Fifth-and-a-half avenue, last evening, coming to celebrate her 43rd birthday anniversary. Cards were the evening diversion and refreshments were served at a late hour. Mrs. Rinehart was left with a number of nice gifts as tokens of the day.

MISSION MEETING AT GALVA.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of Rock Island district of the Methodist church held its annual meeting at Galva Tuesday and Wednesday. It was the most successful and enthusiastic convention ever held in its history. Sixty-five members from outside of Galva were in attendance and although the number greatly exceeded all expectations the Galva society was equal to the occasion and all were entertained most royally. Rock Island First church was represented by six members, Spencer Memorial by eight members, Moline First church, three members, and Moline Second church two members. The outstanding feature of the convention was the presence of Miss Carrie Barge, field secretary, her helpful talks in every session and her thrilling address on Tuesday evening will long be an inspiration to all in attendance. Fine music was provided for every session. A flag for the largest amount in the mite box was presented to Spencer Memorial church and silver cup for the largest increase in the Home Guards was given to Millersburg. Two new societies, Hillsdale and Milan, sent in excellent reports. Eighteen auxiliaries and six circles were reported for the year. Mrs. O. E. Childs of Moline presided and was in charge of the convention sessions and she was ably assisted by Mrs. J. E. Murray of Galva and Mrs. O. J. Lorimer of Aledo. Election of officers resulted in the following being chosen:

President—Mrs. O. E. Childs, Moline. Vice President—Mrs. J. E. Murray, Galva.

Second Vice President—Mrs. O. J. Lorimer, Aledo.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. Agnes Hoadley, Lafayette.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. W. L. Enslow, Moline.

Treasurer—Miss Jennie Taylor, Rock Island.

Superintendents of departments: Child Welfare—Mrs. Egberis, Millersburg; Young People's work, Mrs. C. E. Farr, Kewanee; Mite boxes, Mrs. Oscar Little, Little York; Literature, Mrs. G. D. Reynolds, Rock Island; Christian Stewardship, Mrs. Wilcox, Princeville; Evangelism, Dr. Whipple, Galva.

The society received the election returns at Tuesday evening's session and as they were read were greeted with vors were Easter novelties. Miss Zang was given a pretty gift as a memento of the day.

ENTERTAINS ON BIRTHDAY.

Miss Rose Pewe in her home, 714 Eleventh avenue, last evening entertained a company of young people to celebrate the anniversary of her birth. The evening proved a delightful one with games, contests in which the prize was won by Ray Lohse, and with piano and victrola music. A birthday supper was served in the late evening. Composing the company were: Rose Pewe, Gertrude Patton, Agnes Von Postel, Victoria Wilhelm, Edna Theus, Irene Miller, Irene Cronk, Mary Alexander, Blanche Reid, Marguerite Pewe, Theale Ewert and Ernest Luckenbill, Ralph Patton, Herman Krueger, Arthur Allen, Ray Lohse, Harry Von Durpne, Leroy Kroeger and Keith Nelson.

MOLINE DEPARTMENT PROGRAM.

The music department of the Moline Woman's club enjoyed a delightful program at its April meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. H. L. Buiell and Mrs. Robert Blakemore, 1021 Seventh street, Moline. Illustrations from the compositions of Grieg, Cadman, Fauconier, Dahse, DeKoven, Ronald and Sinding were given. Assisting the members were three Moline men, J. T. Delaporte, J. A. Anderson and W. H. Guthrie, with violin, flute and piano. The literary portion of the program was given by Mrs. Ralph Cowley in a paper on Grieg and Sinding and Mrs. Lewis R. Gaylord on recent English composers. The following program was presented:

Piano, "Auf den Bergen".....Grieg Bessie Baker for Violet Nordquist.

Voice, (a) "The Heart of Her".....Cadman (b) "At Dawning".....Cadman Miss Bessie McEniry, for Mrs. T. B. Reidy, Rock Island; accompanist, Mae Coulton.

Trio, (a) Reverie.....Fauconier (b) Herzblattchen.....Dahse Messrs. Delaporte, Anderson and Guthrie.

Voice, "I Love Thee".....Grieg "Sylvia".....Sinding Mrs. J. M. Cleaver.

Voice, "Indian Love Song".....DeKoven Goldie Mowry.

"Daphne's Love".....Ronald Mrs. E. J. Lewis.

Piano, (a) "March Grotesque".....Sinding (b) "Rustle of Spring".....Sinding Edith Hink.

Voice, "A Rosy Morn".....Ronald Mrs. Fred Soper.

At the business session following the program Mrs. J. J. Dorgan, chairman of the department, appointed Miss Dell Stone, Mrs. Abraham and Miss Grace Abraham a committee to prepare a ticket for officers to be voted on at the May meeting. A resolution written by Miss Mary Lindsay Oliver on the death of Mrs. B. J. Lachner was read and expressed the grief of the department as a whole and of the individual members. It was announced that a recital will be given some time in May by the boy pianist, Arvid Owens, assisted by Ben Hartz of this city. Mrs. F. G. Allen opening her home for the affair.

During the social session the hostesses served refreshments and the members welcomed back Miss Mollie McEniry, who has spent the winter in St. Louis following a long illness. She is fully recovered now and was given a most hearty welcome home.

PARTY TO HONOR VISITOR.

Miss Mary VanHeck at her home, 212 Ninth street, entertained a company of friends last evening to honor her guest, Miss Linnea Zang of Minneapolis. The game of 500 was a diversion and there was music and dancing to round out a delightful time. The house was decorated in yellow and white and the courses of the luncheon were carried out where possible in the colors. On the serving table was a vase of roses and fa-

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

MEATLESS DISHES.

Mock Oyster Soup Made From a Can of Salmon—Put quart of milk on stove, let come to a boil; empty into this a can of salmon, mash fine with potato masher, season with pepper, salt and butter. Let cook only a few minutes. Serve hot with wafers.

Baked Eggs in Batter—Mix two tablespoons heavy sweet cream with three tablespoons fine stale bread crumbs and season with one-fourth teaspoon salt. Put half the mixture into a buttered glass egg dish, slip in two raw eggs, covering with remainder of mixture, leaving egg yolks exposed, and bake in moderate oven until eggs are set. Garnish with parsley.

Noodles Without Meat—Make noodles as usual. Put same amount of water in kettle as you would broth, add generous lump of butter, salt and pepper to taste. When this boils add noodles. After they have finished cooking add a cup of rich milk and serve.

Potato Pot Pie—Prepare dough and potatoes as usual. Put kettle on stove and add as much water as necessary to cook potpie. Add generous lump of butter, salt and pepper. When boiling add first a layer of potatoes, then dough and so on. Adding a little onion helps the flavor, although very good without.

MAKESHIFT HIGH CHAIR.

When a youngster comes to your house to visit and you haven't a high chair, take two ordinary kitchen chairs, place one on top of the other so the seats will be together, fasten a towel over lower rungs to make a seat. The top rung comes right in front of baby and he can't fall out, so you have a very good high chair.

NOVEL "SPREADS" FOR HOT Cakes.

Fruit Spread—About now it is well to commence to use up the preserves and jellies in the jam closet. Any of the jellies served plain will be found by delicious with the delicate cakes. The flannel cakes may be buttered in the kitchen and a light layer of jelly spread between. When eight or nine are thus prepared send to the table and serve by cutting in wedges like pie; or butter, spread with jelly and roll up as soon as baked. The preserves may be thinned with a little warm water and put through the sieve to remove the seeds if berry preserves, then thickened with a little cornstarch and served. Pear, peach, grape or quince preserves may be served without any change.

Chocolate Spread—Melt a table spoon of butter in a saucepan; add to it one and a half squares of unsweetened chocolate, stir until chocolate is melted, then add a cup of sugar, a pinch of salt, and a third of a cup of boiling water. Boil until of the consistency of thick syrup, then remove from fire and flavor with vanilla extract.

Molasses Spread—Boil together for 10 minutes two cupfuls of molasses, a heaping tablespoonful of butter, two tablespoonfuls of vinegar and a pinch of salt. This is very good with corn or rye cakes.

THE TABLE.
Delicious Veal—Get veal steak about half an inch thick; cut it into pieces just large enough for one service. Dip veal first in beaten egg, then in well seasoned bread or cracker crumbs. Have plenty of lard in an iron skillet and have both piping hot. Fry veal quickly a light brown on both sides, then pour milk in skillet till it comes almost to the top of veal. Cover tightly and place in slow oven for about one hour. The last fifteen minutes remove lid so meat will be crisp. Prepared in this way veal is as tender and delicious as spring chicken.

Tropical Salad—Cut into sections four oranges, two firm bananas and a cup of marshmallows. Make dressing by scalding three-fourths cup cream and thickening it carefully with two egg yolks beaten with a teaspoon of sugar. As it cools add a little salt and juice of half a lemon. Blend thoroughly with the salad materials and sprinkle generously with fresh grated coconut.

Sour Beef Heart—Boil heart until done in salted water, cup up in medium-sized pieces, put back in water, add two bay leaves, two peppercorns, two onions. Take one tablespoon lard, one tablespoon flour and brown in frying pan, add vinegar to taste, add to heart. Serve with small dumplings.

Baked Beef Heart—Clean heart thoroughly, make dressing to suit taste, stuff and bake in usual way.

GRANDMOTHER KNEW

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard plaster burned and blistered while it acted. You can now get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister.

MUSTEROLE does it. It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It is scientifically prepared, so that it works wonders, and yet does not blister the tenderest skin.

Just massage MUSTEROLE in with the finger-tips gently. See how quickly it brings relief—how speedily the pain disappears.

And there is nothing like MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Constipation, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chills, Frostbitten Feet, Colds of the Chest (it often prevents Pneumonia).

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50. Be sure you get the genuine MUSTEROLE. Refuse imitations—get what you ask for. The Musterole Company, Cleveland, Ohio.
